“Mills simplifies even the most complex emotions into a coherent stream of consciousness.” – Ones To Watch

“...straight-up, no fuss tunes that instantly stick.” – The Interns

(Los Angeles, CA – October 27th, 2021) – Mills, singer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and troubadour, releases his new song “All We Have” today via Keep Cool/RCA Records. Listen HERE. “All We Have” follows previously released tracks “Five N’ Dime” and “The Store”. All 3 tracks are featured on his upcoming EP Final Thoughts which will be released on November 10th.

Mills says, “I wrote “All We Have” during a beautiful relationship I was in for a short amount of time. It’s about appreciating another person and how they make you feel, but knowing it’s not the right person forever. It’s a bittersweet feeling that everyone knows. It was written in the middle of the relationship and took shape over time, making even more sense now than it did when I wrote it.”

Mills is currently on the road this fall with Peach Tree Rascals on their “I Can’t Wait Tour.” He played at Bowery Ballroom in New York this past Monday and will be playing at Great American Music Hall in San Francisco, CA tonight and The Roxy Theatre in Los Angeles, CA this Friday.

Born and raised in Bowling Green, KY, and having spent time in both Nashville and Los Angeles, Mills’ southern influences have been brightened by the Los Angeles sun, resulting in buoyant melodies tinged with nostalgia. With his poetic storytelling and distinctive harmonies that evoke the 1970s era of Laurel Canyon, 21-year-old Mills emerges as a troubadour for the modern age, vividly spinning tales of young love, happiness and heartbreak. Earlier this year, Mills released his EP Train of Thoughts featuring his critically acclaimed song “Hollow” which Billboard said ““Hollow” is sun-kissed singer-songwriter music, with a beautifully loping hook that gains texture as the harmonies fully arrive.” while The Interns called it “...a sweet spot between John Mayer and Harry Style.”
