This forthcoming EP is a follow-up from Tone’s previous nine-track project FWM, which came out in June. FWM displayed his smooth vocals and honest lyrics while immersing you into the world of R&B with hints of pop and hip-hop. Still FWM is a continuation of that and cements Tone Stith’s status as a quadruple-threat in the entertainment industry. Not only can he play various instruments such as drums, piano and guitar, but as a songwriter, Tone has penned numerous chart-topping hits, including Chris Brown's "Liquor," "Make Love" and "Undecided." Although he has many accolades collaborating with others, Stith's solo music allows him to shine the brightest with his incomparable falsetto and raw talent.

Stay tuned for more from Tone Stith coming soon.
