Audrey Mika says, ““Strangers” is a great song to vibe to when reminiscing on an old relationship. Sometimes, it’s hard to face the truth: the person you used to know is now a stranger to you. In my experience, singing along to a song has been the best way to express my emotions. I know I feel less alone when singing lyrics I truly identify with, and I’m striving to be the kind of artist who’s audience turns to their music for that emotional catharsis.”

Earlier this year, Audrey released “Alive”, “Chivalry” and “Excuses” which was featured in Teen Vogue’s “Best New Music Friday” list as well as Billboard’s “10 Cool New Pop Songs.”
