(New York, NY/Nashville, TN – November 16, 2021) – Grammy nominated singer/songwriter Elle King announces her 2022 Drunk And I Don't Wanna Go Home Tour. The tour will hit 29 cities across the US and Canada and kick off in San Diego, CA on February 15th and culminating at Los Angeles historic The Fonda on March 28th. Tickets for the tour will go on sale to the general public on Friday, November 19th at 10:00 AM local standard time. For VIP packages and more information please visit www.elleking.com.

About King's live performance, Variety wrote "...King churned the clotted cream of punkish country, raw R&B, crotchety rock and deep blues into rich, buttery musical drama...(she) belted, crooned, purred, sauntered and swaggered her way through a tautly rocking set...one thing became very clear: nearly every song was equally contagious, catty-cool, and hit-worthy."

King spent the better part of the year supporting her #1 CMA Award nominated hit "Drunk (And I Don't Wanna Go Home)" with Miranda Lambert. Their hit single "Drunk" came roaring out of the gate upon release and has already racked up over 150 million streams globally. The single debuted at No. 1 in early March on both Billboard's Rock Digital Sales Chart and the Country Digital Song Sales Chart. Additionally, King is the first female artist in history to have scored four radio No. 1 singles on different formats including Adult Pop Songs, Adult Alternative Songs, Alternative Songs and Country Airplay charts. Just last week, King released her version of the Christmas classic, "I'll Be Home For Christmas" via RCA Records/Columbia Nashville (Listen Here). Her take on the holiday favorite will sure to be on everyone's holiday playlists.
