GQ UK's Band of the Year (2021)

"Elegant, petulant, abrasive, foreboding" - TIME, Top 10 Albums of 2021

"their biggest but no less brilliant new album" - USA Today, 10 best albums of 2021

"It's a well-documented fact that Wolf Alice know how to go big, but midway through their gorgeous new record Blue Weekend, they go impossibly bigger." - The FADER, The 50 best albums of 2021

"On their third killer album, London's Wolf Alice continue to set themselves apart from the pack. Again, it is their sonic range that puts them at another level." - Good Morning America, 50 best albums of 2021

“The celebrated dream rock quartet has never sounded as grand and big as they do on their third studio album, a feat of expressive, immersive sonic storytelling” - NYLON, NYLON'S FAVORITE ALBUMS OF 2021

London, England's Wolf Alice have announced an expansion of their incredible run of 2022 North American shows. The additional dates are a part of the band's worldwide tour in support of their Mercury-prize nominated album Blue Weekend (Dirty Hit/RCA Records). The fall dates kick off on September 27th at Terminal 5 in New York and will make its way around the U.S. and parts of Canada. Full dates below. Tickets will be available this Friday, March 18th at 10am Local time.

These shows are in addition to previously announced spring North American dates, which start next week. Wolf Alice will also be supporting Harry Styles for a portion of his European tour this summer, as well as joining Halsey and Bleachers for select shows in the U.S. this June. They will also be playing at the When We Were Young festival in Las Vegas this October.

Blue Weekend is the follow up to 2018's, Mercury-prize winning Visions Of A Life, a record that cemented the band's position as one of the UK's most exciting bands. Indeed, Blue Weekend, which was produced by Markus Dravs (Arcade Fire, Björk, Brian Eno, Florence + The Machine), sees Wolf Alice embrace a newfound boldness and vulnerability in equal measure. Following an avalanche of critical praise and DSP playlisting across the world, Blue Weekend was nominated for the prestigious Mercury Prize, making Wolf Alice one of the only artists to be nominated for every single album they've released. Most recently, the band has garnered a BRIT for Best Group and NME award for Best Festival Headliner.

Wolf Alice are Ellie Rowsell (vocals, guitar), Joff Oddie (guitar, vocals), Theo Ellis (bass) and Joel Amey (drums, vocals). It has been a decade since the band began as a duo of Ellie Rowsell and Joff Oddie, then later expanding to a four-piece, with Joel Amey and Theo Ellis joining the group. Since then, the band saw their 2015 debut album My Love Is Cool soar to #2 on the UK charts, their sophomore album Visions Of A Life win the 2018 Hyundai Mercury prize, and a GRAMMY nomination for Best Rock Performance.
