ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

*Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.
(Ephesians 3:20-21)*

Quite often, we are guilty of putting God in a box. We don't expect much from Him because we measure Him by our limitations. So what happens when we recognize the power He's given us through salvation? We lose the chains that hold us back and break boundaries that we set up for ourselves – and we can change the world! That Gospel message is central to the theme of everything Sunday Drive stands for, and sharing that message through song is their true calling. This album marks a new partnership with StowTown Records and a renewed purpose for the group. They've never been so energized to share these songs.

With top-notch production from multiple award-winning producer Wayne Haun, Sunday Drive has a phenomenal new sound. Their familial blend is accentuated by harmonies as tight as their bond. They don't stray from their Southern Gospel roots, but rather embrace them wholeheartedly. With nine brand new songs penned by some of today's top Gospel songwriters, fans will be pleased and encouraged by honest messages of hope and redemption. The messages are as honest as their sound – true and consistent throughout the album. Sunday Drive seeks to break boundaries in their ministry this year – and this album will be the catalyst that makes that happen.
