To the parents:

1. Have you noticed that your teenager is absent from the family or spending a lot of “alone” time in their rooms on video games or social media? Explain.
2. Do feel that you are fully present with your kids at home? How can you achieve this?
3. Does the way you live teach and demonstrate to your family that God is your ultimate authority? Is there evidence in your life of this and can your kids see it?
4. Are you approachable by your teen or is there a wall in the relationship between you and your teen? How did it start? What are the issues? Explain.
5. What is the difference between training your teen and teaching your teen? Which one are you doing right now with your teen? What can you do to start training?

To the students:

1. How much time do you spend daily on a digital device or social media?
2. Do you ever feel lonely or sad due to what somebody has said on social media?
3. 50% of teenagers feel like they are addicted to social media. How do you feel about it in your own life?
4. Are you making friends on social media or in real life?
5. How are your friendships in school?
6. In Proverbs 4:23 it says to guard your heart. What does it mean in your life to guard you own heart? Does guarding your heart apply to what you do on social media?
